Summary of Legislation: This bill adds provisions to the Indiana insurance law regulating transfers of payment rights under structured settlement agreements. The bill defines "structured settlement" as periodic payment of damages established by a settlement or court judgment in resolution of a tort claim for personal injury. It requires certain disclosures and court approval of an agreement to transfer structured settlement payment rights. The bill specifies express court findings required for approval of a transfer of structured settlement payment rights. It also makes conforming amendments.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.
